

GRAMMY CAMP® PARTNERS WITH HANDY TO PRESENT A WEEKEND CAMP IN FT. LAUDERDALE ON DEC. 1

GRAMMY MUSEUM® PROGRAM PREPARES LOCAL YOUTH FOR CAREERS IN THE MUSIC BUSINESS

WHO: Professional participants at GRAMMY Camp®—Weekend Ft. Lauderdale include Michelle Ehlen, producer, writer, director, and video production faculty member; Anne Heaton, singer/songwriter, pianist, and vocal performance faculty member; and Rick Schmunk, professor, music technology clinician, professional musician, and electronic music production faculty member.

WHAT: Taking place in Ft. Lauderdale on Saturday, Dec. 1 at HANDY, GRAMMY Camp—Weekend is a nonresidential music industry experience that offers high school students an introduction to the music industry. Participants will learn elements of how the music business works and how they can begin to plan a successful career.

GRAMMY Camp—Weekend Ft. Lauderdale will offer students three music career tracks: Electronic Music Production, Video Production, and Vocal Performance.

The GRAMMY Museum also offers GRAMMY Camp, an immersive music industry summer experience for high school students. Financial assistance is available for eligible students, and anyone interested is encouraged to learn more via www.grammyintheschools.com.

ABOUT THE GRAMMY MUSEUM

Established in 2008 as a partnership between the Recording Academy™ and AEG, the GRAMMY Museum® is a nonprofit organization dedicated to cultivating a greater understanding of the history and significance of music. Paying tribute to our collective musical heritage, the Museum explores and celebrates all aspects of the art form—from the technology of the recording process to the legends who've made lasting marks on our cultural identity. In 2017, the Museum integrated with its sister organization, the GRAMMY Foundation®, to broaden the reach of its music education and preservation initiatives. As a unified organization, today, the GRAMMY Museum fulfills its mission of making music a valued and indelible part of our society through exhibits, education, grants, and public programming.
